

Week of October 5 – 9, 2009

Harold Doherty

Harold Doherty has volunteered at Beacon Cove Intermediate for over 2 years. Mr. Doherty can be seen in the media center most days shelving, organizing, and checking out books. He is also the cashier at book fairs. He is an inspiration to all.

Chelsey Vicari

Chelsey is a student at Palm Beach Community College and volunteers at Benoist Farms Elementary. For over a year, she has worked in Mrs. Hunt's first grade class. Every Friday the students wait eagerly for her to arrive. Chelsey prepares lessons for the next week, helps the students with their class work, and helps to create special projects with them.

Week of October 12 – 16, 2009

Damalis Leyva (Da-ma-lis La va)

Damalis Leyva has volunteered at Liberty Park for 1 year. She assists the teachers in their classrooms and helps out at all special events. She also helps the front office with clerical jobs and whatever else is needed.

Patricia Thompson

Patricia Thompson has volunteered at Pierce Hammock Elementary for 5 years. Mrs. Thompson assists in her daughter's classroom making copies and preparing special projects. She also contributes numerous supplies to the classroom. Mrs. Thompson is loved by all.

Week of October 19 – 23, 2009

Chloe Parson

Chloe Parson is a student who volunteered at Egret Lake Elementary. Chloe assisted with the textbook inventory for a new elementary school reading series. This task included categorizing leveled readers, and assembling and dividing various grade level books. She was such a help on this tedious job!

Charlotte Money Penny

Charlotte Money Penny has volunteered at Plumosa School of the Arts for 5 years. Charlotte works in her children's classroom and does whatever is needed of her. She also runs the Holiday Shoppe, helping the students at Plumosa select just the right gifts.

Week of October 26 – 30, 2009

Nancy Guzman

Nancy Guzman has volunteered at Frontier Elementary for over 4 years. Mrs. Guzman has helped out in her grandson's class. She also distributes fluoride for the SWISH program. In addition, she has worked at the book fair, helping children to pick out just the right book.

Adele Selwyn

Adele Selwyn has volunteered at Loxahatchee Grove Elementary for 3 years. Mrs. Selwyn reads one-on-one with several students who are struggling with their words. A former teacher, Mrs. Selwyn understands the importance of students' first few years in school.

Week of November 2 – 6, 2009

Nicole Chischilly

Nicole Chischilly is a student at Palm Beach Community College and volunteers at Heritage Elementary. For 5 years Nicole has tirelessly assisted the front office staff, teachers, students, and parents. She extends her hands to serve in whatever capacity needed.

Caleen Dufresne (Du-fresh-knee)

Caleen Dufresne has volunteered at Elbridge Gale Elementary for 4 years. She is vice-president of the PTA and works tirelessly on all fundraisers. Caleen also works in the teacher workroom making copies, laminating, and doing whatever is needed. Mrs. Dufresne, along with her husband, also gives free science demonstrations at the school.

Week of November 9 – 13, 2009

Glorymar Birkeland

Glorymar Birkeland, a student at Florida Atlantic University, has volunteered at Greenacres Elementary for over 2 years. Ms. Birkeland volunteers in the kindergarten classroom assisting in whatever duties are assigned to her. She is that extra pair of eyes, making sure that every child's needs are met.

Daniel Perez has volunteered at Liberty Park Elementary for 1 year. Daniel is a very talented dancer, artist, and entertainer. He helps PTO out with special projects and programs that happen at the school.

Week of November 16 – 20, 2009

Michelle Grabasch

Michelle Grabasch has volunteered at Citrus Cove Elementary for 5 years. Cooking and craft day is on Fridays, and Michelle is always there to give a helping hand. She has been named “Chef Grabasch” by her students. You can find Michelle in the classrooms assisting in whatever is needed.

Diane Klimas

Diane Klimas volunteers at Dwight D. Eisenhower Elementary. For 4 years Diane has worked book fairs and holiday celebrations. Diane also reads to the children and works with students who are struggling. She has given them the confidence to read and enjoy it!

Week of November 23 – 27, 2009

Lorraine Lanier

Lorraine Lanier has volunteered at Boynton Beach Community High for 2 years. Mrs. Lanier is a true golf mom. She chaperones on field trips and provides snacks and refreshments for the team players at her own expense. She also helps the students with web design and whatever else is needed.

Thomas Wilson

Thomas Wilson is a student who volunteers at Beacon Cove Intermediate. For two years Thomas assisted in the front office, bus loop, and at parent drop-off. He never missed a morning. Thomas is an example of a wonderful student volunteer!

Week of November 30 – December 4, 2009

Nidia Torres

Nidia Torres has volunteered at Liberty Park Elementary for over 1 year. Mrs. Torres assists the art teacher and students with special projects. She works with 4 teachers simultaneously organizing centers, facilitating groups, and interacting with grades kindergarten through fifth.

Donna Robbins

Donna Robbins has volunteered at Morikami Elementary for 2 years. Donna works in her children’s classes as the room mom. She assists in the cafeteria daily, and organizes all the volunteers for upcoming events. She also is the grade level coordinator for the school.

Week of December 7 – 11, 2009

Sabrina Sisley

Sabrina Sisley has volunteered at Diamond View Elementary for 3 years. She is creative and has designed many of the bulletin boards around the school. Mrs. Sisley also helps correct homework and makes copies needed by the teacher each week.

Novella Tillman

Novella Tillman has volunteered at Rosenwald Elementary for 4 years. Mrs. Tillman, a retired teacher, has returned to Rosenwald to tutor students in math and to mentor. Her involvement has sparked interest in the students and they are finding a love of math.

Week of December 14 – 18, 2009

Patricia Kingsley

Patricia Kingsley has volunteered at Okeehelée Middle School for over 1 year. Patricia is President of the PTSO and has recruited many new parents to the organization. She spearheads most of the fundraising events. This has provided many incentives for the students throughout the year.

Sharon Padilla

Sharon Padilla has volunteered at North Palm Beach Elementary for over 11 years. Sharon works in the classroom assisting the teachers with copying, grading papers, and anything else that is needed. She also helps with the book fair, carnival, popcorn day, and chaperones on field trips.