

Do you teach at a Title I school and need to become highly qualified (HQ) in reading?

The School District of Palm Beach County is offering partial reimbursements to cover the cost of Reading Competencies 1, 2, and 3, as well as the $75 fee to add the reading endorsement to the teaching certificate. The reading endorsement must be added to the certificate by June 20, 2011.

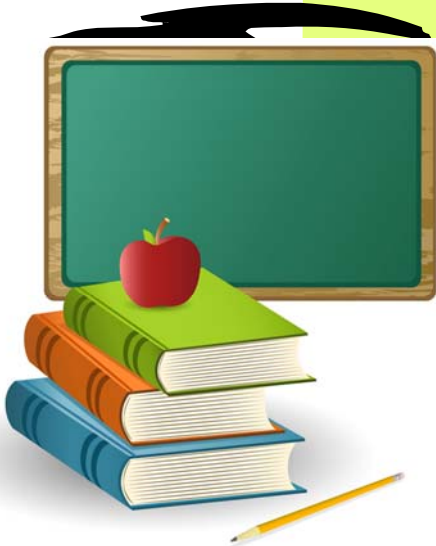

To be eligible for reimbursement, you must...

- Teach reading in a Title I school.
- Be deemed not HQ in reading for FY11.
- Complete the reading endorsement and add it to your teaching certificate.
(The reading competencies must be completed on or after July 1, 2010.)
- Submit the required documentation to the Certification/HQ Standards Office prior to June 20, 2011.

Not-HQ teachers will be reimbursed up to $300 per competency (for a total of up to $900), based on the “paid” receipts submitted with the required documentation.

Reimbursements for the cost of the reading competencies and add-on fee are on a “first come, first served” basis until the funds are expended!
