

Do you teach at a Title I school and need to become highly qualified (HQ) in Reading?

Federal funds are now available to offer partial reimbursement to cover the cost of the reading competencies as well as the $75 fee to add the Reading Endorsement to the teaching certificate. The Endorsement must be added to the certificate by June 1, 2012.

To be eligible for reimbursement, you must...

- Teach reading in a Title I school.
- Be deemed not HQ in reading for FY12.
- Complete the Reading Endorsement and add it to your teaching certificate.

(Reading competencies must be completed on or after July 1, 2011.)

- Submit the required documentation to the Certification/HQ Standards Office prior to June 1, 2012.

Non-HQ teachers will be reimbursed up to $300 per competency (for a total of up to $900), based on the “paid” receipts submitted with the required documentation.

Partial reimbursement for the cost of the reading competencies and add-on fee will be processed on a “first come, first served” basis until the funds are expended!
