

Administrative Biography

Mrs. Tameka Robinson

Principal

Mrs. Robinson is the proud Principal at Santaluces Community High School. Born and raised in New Iberia, Louisiana, she graduated from Southern University with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Management. Mrs. Robinson brings to Santaluces Community High School more than 19 years of educational experiences as a teacher, assistant principal, and principal in Florida and North Carolina.

Mrs. Robinson began her teaching career in 1996 at Gold Coast Community School as a vocational teacher for 6 years. While teaching, she pursued her Master's Degree in Educational Leadership from Florida Atlantic University (FAU) in Boca Raton, Florida. Mrs. Robinson served as an assistant principal at Forest Hill Community High School in West Palm Beach, FL and West Mecklenburg High School in Charlotte, NC for 7 years before being appointed principal of Cypress Trails Elementary School in Royal Palm Beach, FL. Mrs. Robinson served as the principal of Cypress Trails for 4 years. During her tenure, she raised the school grade from a C to an A, established Professional Learning Communities, and built capacity among teachers.

In July 2014, Mrs. Robinson transitioned into the position of Principal of Santaluces Community High School. She is excited to be going into her third year as the Principal. Her educational experience in diverse communities has allowed her to collaborate with all stakeholders to increase student performance and achievement. Her educational philosophy is based on the belief that all children can learn if given the necessary resources, caring and supportive teachers, and a strong effective leadership team.

In addition, Mrs. Robinson believes in the old African proverb, "It takes a village to raise a child." In order for our students to be successful, we need the support of everyone in the community and Mrs. Robinson is always welcome to business and community partnerships to ensure our students are college and career ready.
