

Administrative Biography

Ms. Wakisha Mawali

Assistant Principal

Ms. Mawali is a proud product of the public education system here in Palm Beach County. She attended elementary, middle, and high school in the Glades. Upon graduating from Glades Central Community High School, Ms. Mawali continued her post-secondary education by earning a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Business Administration from Florida Atlantic University (FAU) and a Master's of Science Degree in Educational Leadership from Nova Southeastern University (NSU).

Ms. Wakisha Mawali is a dedicated educator who brings 19 years of School District of Palm Beach County work experiences to Santaluces Community High School. Ms. Mawali, began as a substitute teacher, and then excelled as a Business Education teacher at three Title 1 Middle Schools. She served in the capacity of an Elective Team Instructional Leader and then as an Assistant Principal of Lake Worth Middle School. Her philosophy for all students is "Proper preparation prevents poor performance." She is truly committed to ensuring that all students receive a quality education.

Ms. Mawali is proud of numerous successes throughout her career. To name a few recent accomplishments, 84% of students graduated this past year, a 12% increase in proficiency on the US History EOC occurred, and while serving as the summer school site administrator 89% of students earned their graduating Algebra concordant score.

Ms. Mawali enjoys spending time with her family, attending sporting events, and traveling.