то:	Honorable Chair and Members of the School Board Dr. Donald Fennoy, Superintendent
FROM:	Lung Chiu, Inspector General
DATE:	June 1, 2018
SUBJECT:	Transmittal of Final Investigative Report for Case # 17-664 Olympic Heights Community High School

In accordance with School Board Policy 1.092, we hereby transmit the above-referenced final report.

The report addresses an allegation that the Band Director at Olympic Heights Community High School hired a consultant that was compensated more than what the consultant agreement stated. The results of the investigation concluded the allegation was substantiated.

The results of this investigation were referred to the Office of Professional Standards for necessary action.

The report is finalized and will be posted on the Inspector General's website; www.palmbeachschools.org/inspectorgeneral

> Type of Report: FINAL

AUTHORITY

School Board Policy 1.092 provides for the Inspector General to receive and consider complaints, and conduct, supervise, or coordinate such inquiries, investigations, or reviews, as the Inspector General deems appropriate.

This investigation was conducted by Senior Investigator Veronica Vallecillo in compliance with the Quality Standards for Investigations, Principles and Standards for Offices of Inspector General, promulgated by the Association of Inspectors General.

INTRODUCTION

On August 18, 2017, the Office of Inspector General (OIG) received a complaint from the Olympic Heights Community High School Principal regarding the band program. The complainant alleged that during Fiscal Year 2016/17 a consultant hired by Band Director Jacqueline Gonzalez-Parsons was compensated more than what the consultant agreement stated.

BACKGROUND

Olympic Heights Community High School is a public high school located in Boca Raton, Florida serving grades 9 - 12.

ALLEGATION AND FINDING<sup>1</sup>

1. Band Director Jacqueline Gonzalez-Parsons compensated a band program consultant more than the maximum amount stated on the consultant agreement. Substantiated.

GOVERNING DIRECTIVES

- School Board Policy 6.14 Purchasing Department.
- District Purchasing Manual Chapters 12 & 13.
- District Internal Accounts Manual Chapter 8.

ALLEGATION 1: EVIDENCE & TESTIMONY

Allegation: Band Director Jacqueline Gonzalez-Parsons compensated a band program consultant more than the maximum amount stated on the consultant agreement.

Complaint Information

The complainant stated that the Band Director hired consultant Jessica Horn. The executed agreement provided for a maximum payment of $5,000 to the consultant.

Testimony of Jacqueline Gonzalez-Parsons, Band Director, via Legal Representative Mark Wilensky – Dubiner & Wilensky, LLC (Attachment 1 & 2)

Gonzalez-Parsons stated she does not prepare the consultant agreements, but does fill in the blanks on the form according to the training she was provided by School Treasurer Bertha Beltran. Gonzalez-Parsons explained she prepares the band program budget, but does not specifically budget for individual consultants.

Gonzalez-Parsons stated consultant Jessica Horn is a year round consultant and her compensation is the largest single component of the amount budgeted for consultants. Gonzalez-Parsons noted Ms. Horn's work is dependent on the specific routines and performances prepared.

Gonzalez-Parsons explained School Treasurer Bertha Beltran instructed her that for bookkeeping purposes it was the policy of the school to set consultant agreements in $5,000 increments, with subsequent $5,000 agreements to follow if needed. Gonzalez-Parsons said that although she has a backup system, it is not a day-to-day running total. The actual bookkeeping is done by the School Treasurer; whose role is to monitor the payments under the agreements. Gonzalez-Parsons stated School Treasurer Bertha Beltran would advise her when payments were approaching the total amount set forth in a specific agreement and it was her understanding that no payments exceeding the contract amount would be made until the supplemental agreement was approved. Gonzalez-Parsons stated a new (supplemental) agreement was executed. Gonzalez-Parsons stated the School Treasurer should have a copy of said agreement. Gonzalez-Parsons said that she would advise the OIG if she had a copy of the agreement in her records. As of May 11, 2018, the OIG has not received the documentation.

Testimony of Concetta DelSorbo, Administrative Assistant

DelSorbo said prior to her current position, she was the school treasurer for Olympic Heights. DelSorbo stated one of her responsibilities as the school treasurer was to obtain approvals for consultant agreements submitted by teachers/sponsors. DelSorbo noted once approvals were obtained for consultant agreements, she maintained a copy of the agreement for her records.

DelSorbo noted that around the end of the school year (FY 16/17) she totaled payments for consultant Jessica Horn because it appeared many payments had been made to this consultant. DelSorbo stated she discovered Horn had been paid around $12,000. DelSorbo said she brought it to the Principal's attention and notified the Internal Accounts Department. DelSorbo did not receive a new or supplement agreement from the Band Director (Gonzalez-Parsons) or the Principal after she notified the Principal.

DelSorbo noted Gonzalez-Parsons did ask periodically for the balance of the band account, but did not ask for totals showing payments to a specific consultant. DelSorbo explained the tracking of consultant payments is the responsibility of the sponsor/teacher and she does not know if Gonzalez-Parsons kept track of consultant payments for the band program.

Testimony of Bertha Beltran, Human Resource Analyst

Beltran stated she was previously the school treasurer at Olympic Heights High School. Beltran said her last day at the school was sometime in June/July of 2016.

With regard to consultant agreements, Beltran stated that teachers/sponsors would bring her the completed agreements for her to obtain the necessary approvals. Beltran said she kept track of consultant payments to ensure there would be no issues with the annual school audits. Beltran explained she knew it was not her responsibility to oversee consultant payments and made it clear to all teachers/consultants that it was their responsibility to ensure consultant payments would not exceed the maximum amount on the agreement. Beltran noted she would remind each teacher/sponsor every school year of their responsibilities.

Beltran stated she notified her replacement (Concetta DelSorbo) of what her process was regarding consultant agreements but also let her know it was the responsibility of each teacher/sponsor to keep track of consultant payments.

Documentation Reviewed

The OIG reviewed the consultant agreement for consultant Jessica Horn (Exhibit 1). The Agreement reflected the following:

Term	July 1, 2016 – June 30, 2017
Provided Services	Color Guard Instructor/Director
Approximate # of Students to be Served	70
Compensation Maximum	$5,000
Maximum Hours	200
Hourly Rate	$25.00

The OIG reviewed the band program's internal fund account. The review revealed that Ms. Horn was compensated for 502 hours totaling $12,556 during Fiscal Year 2016/17 (Exhibit 2). The maximum compensation stated amount on the agreement was exceeded by $7,556. While each check requisition for payment to Ms. Horn included supporting documentation, the OIG did not verify if Ms. Horn worked the hours listed on each invoice.

Chapter 8 of the District's Internal Account Manual states one of the teacher/sponsor's role in the disbursement process is to "confirm the accuracy of payments by reviewing account transactions periodically."

Chapter 13 of the District's Purchasing Manual states that if a contract needs to be amended for additional funds, time, and/or services an amendment must be completed, District Form - Amendment to Consultant/Service Provider Memorandum of Agreement (PBSD Form 1843).

Gonzalez-Parsons' testimony included that a new (supplement) agreement was executed. The OIG requested a copy of the agreement. As of May 11, 2018 the OIG has not received the documentation. Additionally, the OIG found no record that an amendment or new agreement was executed.

Based on testimony obtained and documentation reviewed, the OIG determined that the allegation that Band Director Jacqueline Gonzalez-Parsons compensated a band program consultant more than the maximum amount stated on the consultant agreement was Substantiated.

It is recommended that Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons maintain accurate records of consultant payments and ensure consultant agreement amendments are completed as necessary.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Non Compliance with District Purchasing Guidelines

Testimony of Jacqueline Gonzalez-Parsons, Band Director, via Mark Wilensky – Dubiner & Wilensky, LLC (Attachment 1)

Gonzalez-Parsons stated Ms. Horn is reimbursed for program related purchases because there are times when using the school p-card is impractical or impossible.

Gonzalez-Parsons stated the School Treasurer is made aware of band program related purchases ahead of time and she assumes that the Principal would have knowledge of it. Gonzalez-Parsons stated that whenever possible a District approved vendor is used when making program related purchases.

Testimony of Concetta DelSorbo, Administrative Assistant

DelSorbo denied that Gonzalez-Parsons let her know ahead of time when purchases related to the Band Program were made. She was made aware when she received the check requisitions.

OIG Case #17-664

Documentation Reviewed

The OIG determined that during Fiscal Year 2016/17, Ms. Horn was reimbursed $6,695.33 for the purchases of uniforms, flags, and supplies as follows (Exhibit 3):

Description of Purchase	Amount
Guard uniforms and flags	$2,631.95
Printed flags	$1,187.70
Gloves and uniforms for Winter Guard	$1,452.58
Supplies	$904.75
Guard jackets	$518.35
Total	$6,695.33

Chapter 8 of the District's Internal Accounts Manual states "teacher/sponsors may not make unauthorized purchases without first routing them to the principal for approval to confirm their compliance with district purchasing guidelines and policies."

Chapter 12 of the District's Purchasing Manual states "All internal accounts purchases require approval by the principal prior to the purchase being made. Principals have flexibility in managing their approval process as they deem best for their school. Small dollar purchases defined as orders under $1,000 may be approved verbally if the principal chooses this option. All other purchases require written purchase orders, signed consultant contracts, an approved field trip request form, signed TDE or an approved fund raising application to initiate the order."

Ms. Horn received three reimbursements where the amount exceeded $1,000. The supporting documentation of the expenditures did not contain the required Purchase Orders.

It is recommended that Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons and the School Treasurer review the District's Purchasing Manual and Internal Accounts Manual to ensure procedures related to expenditures are followed.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The OIG recommends that:

- Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons maintain accurate records of consultant payments, ensure consultant payments are within the agreed amounts, consultant agreement amendments are completed as necessary, and review the District's Purchasing Manual and Internal Accounts Manual to ensure procedures related to program expenditures are followed.
- The Office of Professional Standards review the report and take whatever action is deemed appropriate.

AFFECTED PARTY NOTICE

In accordance with School Board Policy 1.092 (8)(b)(iv), on April 11, 2018, Jacqueline Gonzalez-Parsons was notified of the investigative findings and provided with an opportunity to submit a written response to these findings.

OIG COMMENTS TO SUBJECT'S RESPONSE VIA MARK WILENSKY – DUBINER & WILENSKY, LLC

On March 8, 2018, the OIG received a response submitted by Attorney Mark Wilensky on behalf of Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons. The response, in its entirety, is attached (Exhibit 4).

The OIG reviewed the response provided by Mr. Wilensky on behalf of Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons. Below are the OIG's comments.

Response: "In point of fact, Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons did not pay anyone. The conclusion that she did is not accurate or consistent with the truth."

OIG Comment: While the allegation includes the word "compensated", the investigative report does not reference or imply that Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons made the actual payments. As noted in the report, a Check Requisition Form was submitted for each payment Ms. Horn received.

Response: "If, in fact, the payment requested exceeded the consultant agreement, the Principal was responsible not to make the payment. The fact that he did reflects that the Principal, too, did not maintain the kind of records necessary to ensure that such a payment was made."

OIG Comment: The School Principal is responsible for disbursements involving the school's internal funds. However, there are District procedures in place that hold teachers/sponsors accountable for their role. Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons, as Band Director, enlisted Ms. Horn as consultant for the band program. As the contract administrator, Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons, was responsible for ensuring agreement compliance, receiving and approving the invoices, completing check requisitions, and maintaining payment records in accordance with the consultant agreement. As noted in the report, Chapter 8 of the District's Internal Account Manual states one of the teacher/sponsor's role in the disbursement process is to "confirm the accuracy of payments by reviewing account transactions periodically."

Response: "It was the policy of the school to execute consultant agreements in $5,000 increments, with subsequent $5,000 agreements to follow, consistent with budgeting."

OIG Comment: The School Board has no such policy in place, nor are there written District procedures that state such.

Response: "The bookkeeper would advise when requested payments authorized and approved by the Principal approached the total amount set forth in a specific agreement. At that time, an additional agreement was prepared and submitted for approval. No payments were to be made in excess of the agreement, and Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons always understood that none above an agreement total would be made until the supplemental agreement was approved. Although the Draft Report attempted to ignore that policy..."

OIG Comment: The School Board has no such policy in place, nor are there written District procedures that state such. As stated in Human Resource Analyst Ms. Bertha Beltran's testimony, she kept track of consultant payments to ensure there would be no issues with the annual school audits and knew it was not her responsibility to oversee consultant payments. Ms. Beltran made it clear to all teachers/consultants that it was their responsibility to ensure consultant payments would not exceed the maximum amount on the agreement. This process does not excuse Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons from not following District procedures.

Response: "The Draft Report failed to address the fact that the Principal and the present bookkeeper have maintained that system, and in fact refined it even further, so that the amounts remaining in a consultant agreement are posted by the bookkeeper on each transaction."

OIG Comment: As stated above, the School Board has no such policy in place, nor are there written District procedures that state such. A school treasurer can have additional steps in place in addition to what is required, but School Board Policies and District procedures are what District employees are to adhere to.

Response: "While the Draft Report suggests that Ms. Beltran provided the monitoring of the agreements as some sort of service and not because she had to do so, that point is hardly germane."

OIG Comment: The report does not suggest that. In Ms. Beltran's testimony, she stated that she kept track of consultant payments to ensure there would be no issues with the annual school audits. There is no such School Board Policy or District procedure that requires a school treasurer to monitor agreements, it is the responsibility of the teacher/sponsor.

Response: "The implication that there existed some issue because "the OIG cannot verify if Ms. Horn worked the hours listed on each invoice" is spurious and shows the misleading nature of the Draft Report."

OIG Comment: The report makes no such implication; it is a statement of fact and noted as to ensure the reader does not assume the OIG reviewed that information.

Response: "While the Draft Report states that Chapter 8 of the District's Internal Account Manual states that the teacher/sponsor is to confirm payments by reviewing account transactions periodically, there is not and could not be any evidence that Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons did not do so." OIG Comment: The OIG relied on the fact that Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons was not aware that Ms. Horn's payments had exceeded the agreement. As stated in Attachment 1, Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons was made aware of the issue "through this inquiry." Ms. Gonzalez- Parsons also stated she realized "After the fact" that Ms. Horn's amount was going to exceed the contract.

Response: "As she explained in her responses which were not included in the Draft Report, ... "

OIG Comment: Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons responses submitted by Attorney Mark Wilensky dated February 2, 2018 and March 21, 2018 were attached, in their entirety, to the draft report as Attachment 1 and Attachment 2. Both attachments will remain the same in the final report.

Response: "Of interest, though ignored by the Draft Report, is the fact that while Ms. Beltran was bookkeeper, and, since Concetta Del Sorbo was replaced because of the problems she had during her brief and unsuccessful tenure as bookkeeper, there has been no issue regarding supplemental agreements or any other bookkeeping matter."

OIG Comment: As stated above, what Ms. Beltran did was not a requirement, policy or procedure. The comments about other school treasurers are not relevant to the investigation and its findings.

Response: "Of even greater concern is the blatant misstatement of fact which claims that Ms. "Gonzalez-Parsons testimony included that a new (supplement) was executed." That is either an intentional misstatement of fact, or reflects an inability to understand what was set forth in Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons' response. There is an obvious typographical error in her response to question 8."

OIG Comment: As reflected in question 8 in Attachment 1, the question does not pertain to supplements. As it must be a typographical error in the response, the above statement may be referring to question 9 in Attachment 1. The OIG could not have known there was a typographical error as the OIG does not make assumptions. The OIG followed up on the matter on March 16, 2018, by way of email to Mr. Wilensky, requesting a copy of the new (supplemental) agreement referenced in question 9 (Exhibit 5). The matter could have been clarified in Attachment 2 dated March 21, 2018; however, the letter did not explain a typographical error, but instead explained that Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons may have a copy.

Response: "As to the issue of purchasing, the Draft Report completely ignore the matters presented by Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons in response to direct questions from the investigator." [sic]

OIG Comment: As noted above, any responses submitted by Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons are included in the report. The information related to purchasing is under a section titled "Additional Information". The information was discovered during the review and is not an allegation. All District employees are expected to adhere to School board policies and District procedures.

Response: "As to a teacher/sponsor, the day to day interpretation of the District policies, standards and its manuals is set by the Principal and his designee/bookkeeper."

OIG Comment: The Principal does not set policies, standards, or manuals. The School Board approves policies. Procedures and standards are set by District staff.

Based on the review of Mr. Wilensky's response, the OIG determined that no additional investigative work is required and the OIG's finding will remain unchanged.

The evidentiary standard used by the School District of Palm Beach County OIG in determining whether the facts and claims asserted in the complaint were proven or disproven is based upon the preponderance of the evidence. Preponderance of the evidence is contrasted with "beyond a reasonable doubt," which is the more severe test required to convict a criminal and "clear and convincing evidence," a standard describing proof of a matter established to be substantially more likely than not to be true. OIG investigative findings classified as "substantiated" means there was sufficient evidence to justify a reasonable conclusion that the actions occurred and there was a violation of law, policy, rule, or contract to support the allegation. Investigative findings classified as "unfounded" means sufficient evidence to justify a reasonable conclusion that the actions did not occur and there was no violation of law, policy, rule, or contract to substantiate the allegation. Investigative findings classified as "unsubstantiated" means there was insufficient evidence to justify a reasonable conclusion that the actions did not occur and a violation of law, policy, rule, or contract to support the allegation could not be proven or disproven.

Re: OIG Case No. 17-644

Dear Ms. Vallecillo:

I represent Jacqueline Gonzalez-Parsons,

In conjunction with that representation, I have received and reviewed a letter dated January 17, 2018, from the Inspector General to my client. The letter asserts that there have been a number of attempts to arrange for Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons to respond to your inquiries, and that response was delayed in waiting for me to be retained. The letter asserts that you were patient in the need to reschedule, and that patience is greatly appreciated. The letter seems to imply that there is some desire on the part of Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons to delay your inquiries. That implication is simply misguided. As your inquiry to date has revealed, Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons has properly accounted for all District monies, and there is no allegation that any funds are missing, or were spent in any way not specifically approved by her Principal. As the answers provided below will show and as what I am certain will be a thorough investigation by you will verify, Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons has followed all policies and procedures utilized at Olympic Heights High School for her many years there, as they have been promulgated and interpreted by the principal and his bookkeeper designees. Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons has no reason to avoid or delay your inquiry. To the contrary, we welcome your confirmation of her responsible actions and care in protecting the assets of the band program, the District, her school, her students and their parents.

The answers to the questions you have asked of are provided hereinbelow, with your question set forth in bold type, for ease of reference:

1. How many students are involved in the band program?

School records show that there are One Hundred Twenty-Four (124) students involved in the band program.

2. How many students involved in color guard?

The band program includes the color guard, and school records show that 12 students participate therein.

3. How many students involved in winter guard?

Veronica Vallecillo February 2, 2018 page two

The band program also includes the winter guard, and school records show that 12 students participate therein.

4. What is the fair share amount?

As is true in other schools, the fair share amount is a contribution amount of money paid by those students involved in performances and competitions to underwrite those activities, which are not funded by either the school (Principal discretion) or the District. Prior to the beginning of the school year the estimated total expenses of such activities is determined by me. Those costs vary by performances, competitions in which participation is anticipated, and the costs unique to those events. The total amount varies from year to year. The fair share of individual students is calculated by dividing that total by the number of students (including the many students for whom "financial assistance" will be provided). No student is denied participation in the program because of an inability to pay the fair share amount.

5. Are you the person that prepares the consultant agreements for the band program?

The agreements are prepared on the District forms provided therefor. I do not prepare them. However, I fill in the blanks in the form, according to the training that was provided to me by the school, through the bookkeeper, who serves as the designee of the Principal.

6. Do you prepare a budget for the band program? If so, what was Ms. Horn budgeted for?

I prepare a budget for the band program. Ms. Horn's payment is not an item for which I specifically budget. She one of a number of consultants, and there is an amount of money budgeted for consultant services. Ms. Horn is a year round consultant, and her compensation is the largest single component of the amount budgeted for consultants. However, there is no specific amount budgeted for her. Her work is dependent on the specific routines and performances actually prepared, and may vary as need arises.

7. Are you aware that Ms. Horn was paid in excess of her agreement?

Yes, because I have been made so aware through this inquiry. That cannot happen if the system set up by the designee of the Principal is working the way it was designed. The bookkeeper instructed me that for bookkeeping purposes it was the policy of the school to set consultant agreements in $5,000 increments, with subsequent $5,000 agreements to follow, consistent with budgeting. Although I have a backup system, it is not a day-to-day running total, as is the bookkeeper's records. Actual bookkeeping is done by the bookkeeper, as designated by the Principal, whose role it is to monitor the payments under the agreements. She advises me when requested payments authorized and approved by the Principal approach the total amount set forth in a specific agreement. At that time, an additional agreement is prepared and submitted for approval. No payments are to be made in excess of the agreement, and I always understood that none would be Veronica Vallecillo February 2, 2018 page three made until the supplemental agreement is approved. As you know, the bookkeeper position at Olympic Heights has been subject to personnel changes. To the extent that you are suggesting that Ms. Horn was paid in excess of her agreement maximum before a supplemental agreement was executed, it could only be because the system put in place by others and followed by me to prevent such events, failed. Either at the instance of the Principal or his new designee bookkeeper, that system has been shored up and reaffirmed. I am receiving timely periodic reports of expenditures made against specific agreements so that I can request additional authorization when the agreement amount becomes close to the maximum.

A. If so, when did you realize her amount was going to exceed her contract?

After the fact.

B. Did you notify anyone?

I was notified.

8. Were adjustments made to the budget for the excess funds paid to Ms. Horn?

No. What you are calling excess payments which were approved by the Principal for payment to Ms. Horn did not cause the amount budgeted for consultants to be exceeded. Thus no such adjustments were necessary nor were they made.

9. Was an amendment executed?

While an Amendment could have been executed, that was not the form and format I was directed to employ by the Principal's designee bookkeeper. A new (supplemental) agreement was executed.

10. Why is Ms. Horn purchasing the uniforms and getting reimbursed?

There are times that use of the school card is impractical or impossible. Ms. Horn would then make the purchases and be reimbursed.

A. Do you let the principal know ahead of time about the purchases?

Neither my Principal nor his predecessor is a miro-manager of my program, nor any other of which I am aware. His designee bookkeeper is aware, and I assume that he has general knowledge, as Mr. Clark is a thorough and careful Principal, in all matters, especially with regard to the expenditure of District and student funds.

B. Do you ensure the vendors Ms. Horn purchases from are District approved?

Whenever possible. Purchases for performances can be time sensitive, and if it is

for a unique item only available from a single vendor or in a limited time frame, that is not always possible. Many of the purchases that are made for the band program involve either one of a kind items (uniforms, etc.) or items that are not on the list of items and vendors the District has considered, and approved. They are all Principal approved, as no payment to any vendor, or reimbursement for any order is made until approved by the Principal. In all cases, use of vendors previously used and approved is the first choice.

C. If the vendors are not District approved, do you obtain 3 quotes?

See above. Again, wherever possible, we do. There are often not three vendors who produce the one of a kind designs we utilize. Some of those items involve design and art materials which are unique creations, only sold by one vendor. We cannot take one vendor's design and seek quotes from two other designers to reproduce that vendor's work product. We are not ordering notebooks, pencils or calculators, which are by their nature mass produced and available from multiple vendors. In such cases as I have described, three quotes are not possible.

I hope that the provision of this information is helpful to your inquiry and addresses that which you wanted to know of my client. If you need further information, please contact me, and not my client. I will be happy to cooperate with you in any way.

Very truly yours,

Re: OIG Case No. 17-644

Dear Ms. Vallecillo:

I have received your email regarding this matter. As I told you that I would do, I have investigated the matters that you referenced.

I am not certain why the Inspector General needs for us to tell you who was in what position at a given school in a given year. That would seem to be a matter of record easily discerned. However, for whatever reason you feel that you do not know the name of the former bookkeeper (the Principal's Designee/bookkeeper who established the procedures that Ms. Parsons followed, and continues to follow), we can advise you that her name is Bertha Beltran. Ms. Beltran was a great bookkeeper, and we have no issues at all with how she handled matters concerning the band at the school. She was easy to work with, and we did everything exactly as she, as the Principal's Designee, directed. The matters that you seem to be inquiring of had their genesis after Ms. Beltran was promoted to a different position; and, a new person was given her job. That person did not last in the job, and was subsequently re-assigned to a new role. The present bookkeeper, as the Principal's new designee, has resumed doing things much as they were done when Ms. Beltran was at the school (with some minor tweaks). As it has always been, everything with the band program is working smoothly. Ms. Parsons' understanding is that after she left Olympic Heights, Ms. Beltran became an Analyst/Payroll, in Accounting Services, although we cannot be certain that she remains in that role.

I am equally uncertain as to the reason you seek copies of agreements from Ms. Parsons. Those contracts/agreements have always been the property/responsibility of the bookkeeper. Accordingly, we have no doubt that she has them all. Ms. Beltran certainly did during her tenure. As Ms. Parsons previously advised, Ms. Beltran was excellent at her job, and Ms. Parsons had neither reason nor desire to "check up on her" by keeping a mirror copy of the band's bookkeeping matters. When Ms. Beltran was at the school, if there was a reason that such records had to be consulted, Ms. Parsons relied on the professionalism of Ms. Beltran to have them, without disappointment. We would suggest that you should get the agreement that you are looking for in that same manner. Ms. Parsons counts on the present Principal's Designee/bookkeeper to keep those records, as did Ms. Beltran. Ms. Parsons does not maintain (nor has there ever been Veronica Vallecillo March 21, 2018 page two reason to believe it was necessary to maintain) a mirror copy of such bookkeeping records. However, it is possible, although far from certain, that in her own files, Ms. Parsons may have a copy. As you know, it is spring break, and Ms. Parsons is away from her classroom. When she returns, she will determine whether she has a copy, and I will advise. However, the actual record document would be with the bookkeeper.

I hope that this information has been helpful.

Very truly yours,

DUBINER & WILENSKY, L.L.C.

RESPONSE TO INSPECTOR GENERAL DRAFT REPORT SUBMITTED ON BEHALF OF JACQUELINE GONZALEZ-PARSONS

The Report of the Inspector General is misleading, incomplete and does not in any way reflect any investigation into the issues presented by the matter. The suggestion that there was an actual investigation conducted is completely belied by the actual facts.

The Draft Report claims that it resulted from a complaint made by the Principal of Olympic Heights High School, alleging that "a consultant hired by Band Director Jacqueline Gonzalez-Parsons was compensated more than what the consultant agreement stated." (sic). No "investigation" or explanation of the manner in which such consultants are paid was actually presented. In point of fact, Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons did not pay anyone. The conclusion that she did is not accurate or consistent with the truth. All payments are made by the Principal himself, after review of a request for payment. That request was first reviewed and passed upon by the bookkeeper. It was then the Principal who authorized and signed off on the payment. If, in fact, the payment requested exceeded the consultant agreement, the Principal was responsible not to make the payment. The fact that he did reflects that the Principal, too, did not maintain the kind of records necessary to ensure that such a payment was made. He relied upon the records and professional acumen of the bookkeeper, as did Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons. To do so was equally reasonable for both, The Draft Report completely omits any analysis of the Principal's actions in this matter. What is in fact true is that he relied upon the bookkeeper to advise him as to whether the agreement was being overspent. If that reliance was justified, so was the same reliance of Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons. The Draft Report should have properly pointed out that reliance on the bookkeeper to actually and efficiently do her job was justified, and at bottom line, the failure to do so by the new bookkeeper was the cause of any mistake made in this matter.

The Draft Report ignored and chose not to investigate the course of conduct that had existed at the school for many years. The system set up by the designee of the Principal has been in effect for many years. It was the policy of the school to execute consultant agreements in $5,000 increments, with subsequent $5,000 agreements to follow, consistent with budgeting. Actual bookkeeping is done by the bookkeeper, as designated by the Principal, whose role is to monitor the payments under the agreements, The bookkeeper would advise when requested payments authorized and approved by the Principal approached the total amount set forth in a specific agreement. At that time, an additional agreement was prepared and submitted for approval. No payments were to be made in excess of the agreement, and Ms. Gonzales-Parsons always understood that none above an agreement total would be made until the supplemental agreement was approved. Although the Draft Report attempted to ignore that policy, the investigator spoke with the former bookkeepers, and neither denied that the above-referenced policy was in fact the way such agreements were always (and are still) handled by the school. In fact, the investigator had access to all of the contracts and records of the school. Had the investigator reviewed them, it would have been clear that for years the system administered by the designee of the Principal worked in exactly that way.

Bertha Beltran confirmed that process, and confirmed that she had instructed her successor in it. Her "cover herself" claim that she felt that it was a teacher responsibility is not relevant to this issue. She took on the responsibility and had handled it for years. It was also the Principal's responsibility to monitor all accounts. Everyone at Olympic Heights High School, including the Principal and Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons, relied upon the bookkeeper to do that job. It is instructive that the system devised by the Principal and his designee worked for many years, without a problem. The records of the bookkeeper bear that out. The Draft Report chose to ignore that fact. It further chose to ignore that only when a bookkeeper whose job performance was so substandard that she was replaced in a short time failed to follow that policy, did the paperwork failure that is at issue here come to pass. Further, the Draft Report failed to address the fact that the Principal and the present bookkeeper have maintained that system, and in fact refined it even further, so that the amounts remaining in a consultant agreement are posted by the bookkeeper on each transaction. That is in fact a codification and improvement on the system that was in place when Bertha Beltran was bookkeeper, and continues the policy of the bookkeeper monitoring the status of the consultant agreements. The suggestion that this issue has its genesis anywhere but in the failure of the bookkeeper (Ms. Del Sorbo) to continue and comply with the longstanding policy of this school is grossly misplaced.

While the Draft Report suggests that Ms. Beltran provided the monitoring of the agreements as some sort of service and not because she had to do so, that point is hardly germane. She did provide the monitoring. It was part of the methodology used in the school for years. Its existence was passed on to Ms. Beltran's successor, according to Ms. Beltran's own statement. If the successor bookkeeper was going to stop monitoring the agreements, and as the designee of the Principal was going to change the practice and policies that had been relied upon for years, either she or the Principal had an obligation to advise those who relied upon those practices and policies of the change. No such announcement was made. It was clearly reasonable for Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons to continue to handle such matters as she had done for years at the school, as she was directed to do by the Principal's designee/bookkeeper.

The implication that there existed some issue because "the OIG cannot verify if Ms. Horn worked the hours listed on each invoice" is spurious and shows the misleading nature of the Draft Report. In fact, Ms. Gonzales-Parsons signed off on each request for payment. That is the verification that the hours were worked, and the kind of verification used in the school and in the district. The Principal effectively signed off when he approved each payment. The investigator never inquired as to how the invoices were approved, or she would have been advised that Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons personally viewed and reviewed the work and hours. How does the OIG know that a teacher, an administrator or even a Principal is working the hours for which they are paid? The school district is not a factory, and not all employees clock in and out. In fact, it is neither unusual nor improper for work performed and hours expended to be compensated upon the verification of a supervisor. That occurred with this consultant. No proof is presented that it did not. The substitution of innuendo for proof is not sound investigatory work.

While the Draft Report states that Chapter 8 of the District's Internal Account Manual states that the teacher/sponsor is to confirm payments by reviewing account transactions periodically, there is not and could not be any evidence that Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons did not do so. The Draft Report does not cite any such evidence, because in fact the opposite is true. Instead of citation to investigative evidence of proof, the Draft Report again substitutes innuendo and suggestion in place of investigation and evidence. As she explained in her responses which were not included in the Draft Report, she in fact maintains her own accounting/bookkeeping records. However, she does so as a back up to the official records of the school bookkeeper, whose job it is to maintain such records for the school. I have attached hereto the Quick Books accounting information utilized by Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons, as well as a breakout of the records concerning Ms. Horn. As Ms. Gonzales-Parsons explained in her responses which were not included in the Draft Report, she in fact maintains her own accounting/bookkeeping records. Of interest, though ignored by the Draft Report, is the fact that while Ms. Beltran was bookkeeper, and, since Concetta Del Sorbo was replaced because of the problems she had during her brief and unsuccessful tenure as bookkeeper, there has been no issue regarding supplemental agreements or any other bookkeeping matter. Had the investigation truly looked into the issue and the situation at Olympic Heights High School, it would have been revealed that in fact Ms. Del Sorbo was ill equipped and singularly ineffective in her role as bookkeeper. Ms. Del Sorbo herself confided to others that she hated the job and that she cried every day, under the stress. Other teachers/sponsors complained of her performance of the job, which could not be rectified by the Tuesday night tutoring sessions given her by Ms. Beltran.

Of even greater concern is the blatant misstatement of fact which claims that Ms. "Gonzalez-Parsons testimony included that a new (supplement) was executed." That is either an intentional misstatement of fact, or reflects an inability to understand what was set forth in Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons' response. There is an obvious typographical error in her response to question 8. In the first sentence of that response, Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons explains why such an agreement was not executed. In the second sentence the word "not" is inadvertently omitted. Any fair reading of the answers to those questions makes that clear. Playing "gotcha" does not attach credibility to the Draft Report. The investigator followed up with subsequent inquiries, and could have easily pointed out the obvious typographical error. She purposefully chose not to do so. In fact, a fair reading of her responses makes clear that Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons did not claim that a supplemental agreement was executed for the time frame at issue. She explained how the process worked, and explained that because the bookkeeper and Principal never advised that the initial agreement had been exceeded, she was not made aware of the need to execute the supplement, and did not.

As to the issue of purchasing, the Draft Report completely ignore the matters presented by Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons in response to direct questions from the investigator. She explained that "[T]here are times that use of the school card is impractical or impossible... Purchases for performances can be time sensitive, and if it is for a unique item only available from a single vendor or in a limited time frame, [purchases from district approved vendors] is not always possible. Many of the purchases that are made for the band program involve either one of a kind items (uniforms, etc.) or items that are not on the list of items and vendors the District has considered, and approved." In fact, all "such purchases are in fact Principal approved by the Principal. In all cases, use of vendors previously used and approved is the first choice." That explanation for the few times that the exceptional circumstances arise is ignored, and summarized in one misleading sentence that omits the rationale. Indeed, review of the investigator's chart of items for which non-approved vendors were utilized makes clear that the practice was only for performance related materials which were one of a kind and unique.

As Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons stated as to the manner in which non approved vendors are utilized, in language not included in the Draft Report, "[T]here are often not three vendors who produce the one of a kind designs we utilize. Some of those items involve design and art materials which are unique creations, only sold by one vendor. We cannot take one vendor's design and seek quotes from two other designers to reproduce that vendor's work product. We are not ordering notebooks, pencils or calculators, which are by their nature mass produced and available from multiple vendors."

As to the language concerning purchase orders for items exceeding $1,000, had the investigator spoken to the department head, she would have learned that in this department purchase orders for amounts exceeding $1,000 are not utilized. None of the bookkeepers nor the Principal have ever inquired about such documents, and never demanded them. All employees follow the methods and standards set forth by the Principal and/or his designee. Ms. Gonzalez-Parsons is similarly situated. If the school policies conflict with those of the District, it is respectfully suggested that the OIG is directing its inquiry in the wrong place. As to a teacher/sponsor, the day to day interpretation of the District policies, standards and its manuals is set by the Principal and his designee/bookkeeper.

Thank you for the attached correspondence.

I have a few follow up questions:

- Please provide the name of the bookkeeper referenced in question #7.

- Please provide a copy of the new(supplemental) agreement reference in question #9.

Regards,

Veronica
