CASE INITIATION & INVESTIGATIVE METHODOLOGY

The investigation was based on an anonymous complaint alleging that Assistant Principal Terence Hart instructed teachers to change student attendance records.

This investigation was conducted in compliance with the Quality Standards for Investigations, Principles, and Standards for Offices of Inspector General, promulgated by the Association of Inspectors General.

INVESTIGATIVE FINDINGS

1. Turning Points Academy Assistant Principal Terence Hart told teachers to change student attendance to indicate that those students that were not present during a class period were at school. Unsubstantiated.

Per School Board Policy 5.09(5)(a)(i)(ii)(iii)(iv) Responsibility of School Centers and School Employees:

a. “Principals Responsibility. The Principal shall:

i. “Be responsible for the administration and implementation of all Florida laws, State Board of Education Rules, and Board policies pertaining to the checking, recording, and reporting of student attendance. Each principal must make the necessary provisions to ensure that all school attendance reports are accurate, timely, and maintained so as to show the absence or attendance of each student enrolled for each school day of the year, in accordance with Fla. Stat. 10003.23 and State Board of Education Rule 6A-01.044.F.A.C.”

2. The OIG findings were determined using the standards that appear on the final page of this report.
ii. "Ensure that all classroom teachers and other necessary school employees are trained and instructed in the proper recording of attendance and may periodically determine whether instructions are being followed."

iii. "Inspect and determine the completeness, accuracy, and timeliness of all school attendance records contained in the record keeping system for students."

iv. "At the end of each year, certify the completeness and accuracy of attendance records indicating such records have been kept in accordance with state laws and rules, as required by Rule 6A-1.044, F.A.C."

The OIG investigation concluded the allegation that Turning Points Academy Assistant Principal Terence Hart instructed teachers to change student attendance records of students who did not report to school was unsubstantiated.

The following is a recap of the interview testimony provided by the witnesses as it relates to Allegation 1.

Principal Dr. Kevin Gatlin: Teachers are responsible for documenting a student’s daily attendance. The teachers update the District’s Student Information System (SIS) daily to verify a student’s attendance in their classes. Training was provided at the beginning of the 2019-20 school year to inform all teachers that as part of the daily school operational plan, student attendance is to be taken within the first five minutes after the start of class. This is done because transient students are often in-and-out of school to attend court.

Dr. Gatlin stated that the Data Processor Kathleen Spaight told him during the beginning of the 2019-20 school year that teachers were not appropriately entering student attendance into the SIS. Therefore, there was a need for a meeting to take place with the teachers to discuss and correct the student’s attendance records. Assistant Principal Terence Hart was responsible for the corrective actions regarding student attendance and met with the teachers to allow them to make the appropriate attendance corrections. Dr. Gatlin said that he did not attend the training, but he was confident that Mr. Hart would not instruct teachers to change student attendance for students that were not present during a class if they were not present in school.

Data Processor, Kathleen Spaight: Ms. Spaight said teachers sometimes forget to take attendance during a class period(s). She contacts the teacher to remind them to update the student’s attendance record. When a teacher is absent from school, the teacher generates a student roster from the SIS for the substitute teacher to take attendance on the day of the teacher’s absence. At the end of the school day, the substitute teacher forwards the attendance roster to her (Ms. Spaight). Ms. Spaight enters the student attendance into the SIS. If a student comes to school late because of a legal matter or is sick, she indicates the reason(s) into the SIS as an excused absence.
Ms. Spaight said she was present at the December 3, 5, and 6, 2019 meetings facilitated by Assistant Principal Terence Hart. The meetings were about student attendance. Teachers were told to ensure they press the SIS save-button after taking attendance. If teachers do not press the save-button, the student attendance data will not show the appropriate daily attendance record. Ms. Spaight explained that, as a backup for updating student attendance, the Behavior Intervention Associates (BIA) staff member maintains and documents the student’s attendance once the student arrives on campus. If a teacher needs to verify or update a student's attendance, they can cross-reference their attendance records with the BIA attendance record. Ms. Spaight stated Mr. Hart did not instruct teachers to change the attendance records of those students who did not report to school.

Turning Points Academy Staff: The OIG interviewed ten teachers. All the teachers stated they were in attendance for the December 3, 5, and 6, 2019, training. Five teachers stated that Mr. Hart instructed them to change attendance records for students who did not report to classes and to show those students present at school. The five teachers stated if a student is not present inside a classroom after the start of class that student is considered absent, and should not be marked present even though the student is present at school.

The remaining five teachers stated that Mr. Hart did not instruct them to change the student’s attendance records but to verify the student attendance records with the other daily school operational attendance practices used to document a student attendance.

Exceptional Student Education (ESE) Coordinator, Colleen Sullivan: Ms. Sullivan said teachers are responsible for recording/monitoring a student's daily attendance. The process for recording a student’s attendance is to update SIS five minutes after the start of a class period to indicate whether the student is absent, present, or at a school-related function. The Data Processor is responsible for monitoring the student’s daily attendance. Generally, if a teacher forgets to take attendance, the Data Processor sends an email or contacts the teacher requesting an attendance correction.

Ms. Sullivan said she was present at the December 3, 5, and 6, 2019, attendance training meetings. Assistant Principal Terence Hart did not instruct teachers to change attendance for those students who did not report to school to show those students were present in school. The teacher’s attendance rosters were cross-referenced with the Intake Attendance Record, and the BIA's attendance record. If a student’s individual class attendance records showed a student was absent, but the Intake Attendance Record and the BIAs attendance records reflected the student was in school, the student attendance record was changed to reflect the same attendance record as the Intake and BIA's attendance records.

Guidance Counselor, Jennifer Jones: Ms. Jones stated she was present at two of the three December 2019 trainings. Mr. Hart stressed the importance of correctly entering student attendance because Juvenile Probation Officers (JPO) enter school grounds to verify student attendance. If the attendance record is not correct, then the JPO may report a non-compliance, and the student can receive punishment from the courts. She recalls from a prior experience that a JPO showed up on school grounds to verify a student’s attendance. The attendance record showed the student was absent, but the student was present at the school.

In addition, the SIS attendance codes were discussed to show teachers the various attendance codes that can be used to document a student’s attendance record. Some teachers were not aware of the multiple attendance codes that could be used to document student attendance. Ms. Jones said that Mr. Hart did not instruct teachers to change student’s attendance for students that did not report to school and show that the student was in school.

Behavior Intervention Associate (BIA), Roderick Carter: Mr. Carter said he is the lead BIA. BIA’s control discipline, and mentor students. Regarding student attendance, once a student enters the intake area, a teacher logs the student’s attendance. Upon the student leaving the intake area, the student receives breakfast and reports to their assigned community pod. A BIA staff member is stationed inside the community pod to receive students and update the attendance roster indicating the time of the student’s arrival.

When visitors such as JPOs or mental health counselors come to the school requesting to meet with a student, the front-desk contacts the BIA and ask them to remove the student from class. The BIA documents the call and escorts the student to the front office to meet with the JPO or counselor. If a teacher is unsure about a student’s attendance, they can cross-reference their attendance records with the BIA attendance records.

Assistant Principal Terence Hart: Mr. Hart stated he facilitated training to teachers on December 3, 5, and 6, 2019. The training covered students transitioning from Turning Points Academy back to their home school and student attendance records. If a student has an excess of 15 days’ absent, the student cannot successfully transition back to his/her assigned school. During the training, the entire student body population’s (88-students) attendance records were reviewed and corrected if needed. The results of the student attendance review showed multiple errors made by the teachers. Mr. Hart explained that students have six class periods. If five of the six class periods show the student was absent; and one teacher did not take attendance the SIS data would show the student was present for the entire school day. If a crime were committed by the student, the school’s attendance records would show the student was in school when in fact the student was absent for five class periods.

Mr. Hart said the school keeps daily attendance records using multiple daily operational practices. The first practice is that, student attendance is taken during student intake when the students arrives on campus. This Intake occurs when the student exits the school bus and enter the school. Teachers are present to observe students that exit the school bus. The second practice is that, after the student leaves the intake area, the student receives breakfast and enters their assigned community pod. Upon entry into the community pod, the student signs-in (date/time) with the BIA staff member that is housed inside the community pod. The third practice is that when, the student enters the classroom, the teacher takes student attendance.

Mr. Hart added that student attendance must be accurate because some students have committed crime(s) in their community and have been referred by the courts to be supervised by a Juvenile Probation Officer (JPO). For example, if a JPO reports to the school and requests to review a students attendance record, and the attendance records show multiple absences, that student’s probation can be violated for non-compliance that will cause the student to receive punishment from the courts. Juvenile Probation Officers, Case Managers, and Mental Health Counselors do remove students from class. When a JPO or counselor reports to the school and requests to meet with a student, the data processor contacts the BIA staff member housed in the community pod and the BIA staff member records the JPO/counselor’s request (time/date) and reason for the visit. The BIA removes the student from the class and escorts the student to meet with the JPO/counselor. Mr. Hart said teachers were told not to mark the student absent because the student is on campus. Teachers were told to update the SIS with the student attendance code "S," which means school related.

Therefore, to ensure that student attendance records were accurate, student attendance records were cross-referenced with the student Intake logs and the BIA attendance rosters. If the student intake log or the BIA attendance roster showed the student present or absent, which was contrary to the teacher’s attendance record, the student attendance was changed to ensure the teacher’s attendance record, the student intake logs and BIA attendance rosters matched.

Mr. Hart stated he did not instruct teachers to change those students who did not report to school to show that student as present in school. The teachers were told not to mark a student absent if the BIA’s and Intake logs showed the student was present.

ADDITIONAL INVESTIGATIVE ACTIVITY

On March 6, 2019, the OIG visited Turning Points Academy to observe how staff members record daily student attendance. The attendance practices stated by Assistant Principal Terrence Hart were observed. Additional attendance practices were identified and listed below:

1. After a student exits the school bus, a staff member receives and directs the students to enter the school through the west entry doors. Two teachers document the student’s attendance on an intake log (Exhibit 1). The Intake log verifies the student’s attendance.

2. The teachers provide the student a 4x4-index card with the student’s name listed and a plastic bag. The 4x4-index card and personal items (cash, cellphones, headphones, etc.) are placed inside the plastic bag (Exhibit 2).

3. The student enters through the west entry doors and is physically searched for contraband by teachers and they place their plastic bag inside an alphabetized bin located on a table. After the search for contraband, the student enters through a metal detector (Exhibit 3).
4. After the student has entered through the metal detector, teachers and a food service staff member are located at the end of the hallway to observe and provide the student breakfast. Once the student receives breakfast, the student is directed to enter into a community pod. There are six community pods, three of the six community pods are used for teacher-student-instructions, and one community pod is used for In-School-Suspension (ISS). Each community pod has a total five classrooms located inside. Upon entry to the community pod, a BIA staff member is stationed at a desk to document the student’s attendance (Exhibit 4). The BIA verifies student attendance.

5. After the bell rings for the start of school, the students enter the classrooms. Teachers are required to take attendance five minutes after the start of class by updating the SIS to show either present, absent, tardy, or S-School related. Teachers updating the SIS verify student attendance.

6. School Police Officer Kevin Kenny maintains a student log to familiarize himself with the students on campus. Officer Kenny is stationed at a desk in the middle of the main hallway to observe students entering the downstairs community pods and students going upstairs to the community pods. A staff member upstairs and a teacher observe the students enter the community pod.

Dr. Gatlin provided the OIG with a copy of agenda meeting minutes for training meetings that occurred on August 5, 2019, August 9, 2019, and a September 30, 2019, and an email that verifies that he instructed teachers to take attendance every class period (Exhibit 5). Additionally, Dr. Gatlin provided five emails from August 14, 2019 through September 23, 2019, which indicate student attendance was not correctly submitted by teachers and needed to be updated to reflect corrected student attendance records (Exhibit 6).

CONCLUSION

Staff members that attended the December 3, 5, and 6, 2019, trainings stated that Mr. Hart did not instruct teachers to change student attendance to reflect students were present when in fact they were not. Attendance adjustments were made by the teachers to ensure that the student attendance records were accurate thus preventing the student from receiving any disciplinary actions from the courts and to ensure compliance with the School Board Policies 2.34 (Records and Reports), 5.09 (Attendance, Absenteeism, and Truancy), and 2019-20, K-12 Student Progression Plan. While student records were changed, the OIG investigation determined the changes were done to correct student attendance records not to show students were present when they were not.

Based on the documents reviewed (intake logs and BIAs student logs) and the testimony obtained, the OIG determined that the allegation that Turning Points Academy Assistant Principal Terence Hart told teachers to change student attendance to indicate that those students that were not present during a class period were at school was unsubstantiated.

2. Administrative staff members inappropriately changed student attendance records.

Per School Board Policy 5.09(5(a)(i)(ii)(iii)(iv) Responsibility of School Centers and School Employees:

* a. "Principals Responsibility. The Principal shall:"

   i. "Be responsible for the administration and implementation of all Florida laws, State Board of Education Rules, and Board policies pertaining to the checking, recording, and reporting of student attendance. Each principal must make the necessary provisions to ensure that all school attendance reports are accurate, timely, and maintained so as to show the absence or attendance of each student enrolled for each school day of the year, in accordance with Fla. Stat. 10003.23 and State Board of Education Rule 6A-01.044, F.A.C."

   ii. "Ensure that all classroom teachers and other necessary school employees are trained and instructed in the proper recording of attendance and may periodically determine whether instructions are being followed."

   iii. "Inspect and determine the completeness, accuracy, and timeliness of all school attendance records contained in the record keeping system for students."

   iv. "At the end of each year, certify the completeness and accuracy of attendance records indicating such records have been kept in accordance with state laws and rules, as required by Rule 6A-1.044, F.A.C..."

The OIG investigation concluded that the allegation that administrative staff members inappropriately changed student attendance records was unsubstantiated.

The following is a recap of the interview testimonies provided by the witnesses as it relates to Allegation 2.

The complainant alleged that administrative staff members that have access to student attendance records changed student attendance.

Assistant Principal, Terence Hart: Due to the pandemic crisis, the OIG was not able to make physical contact with Mr. Hart to obtain a recorded statement. On July 6, 2020, OIG received an email statement from Mr. Hart, which is transcribed in its entirety.
Good Afternoon Mr. Sheppard,

We received your email. After further investigation we did not find any teacher’s attendance was changed by administration or data processor. However, we did discover an email exchange between our data processor and district personnel in regards to senior attendance (Exhibit 7). Please see attached (Exhibit 8). [sic]

Data Processor, Kathleen Spaight: Due to the pandemic crisis, the OIG was not able to make physical contact with Ms. Spaight to obtain a recorded statement. On July 10, 2020, OIG received an email statement from Ms. Spaight, which is transcribed in its entirety.

“In regards to the complaint of the attendance being done by administration after a teacher has marked it I am unaware of anytime I would need to change any attendance after it was taken by the teachers. I would remind the teachers to take their attendance via emails and I would enter attendance that was taken by substitutes when the teacher of record was not available to take their own.

I have attached an email from myself to Amy Gurdak at the FTE office in reference to the graduating seniors and their attendance code for this last May. Jason Smith from the district office had directed Data Processors in an end of year meeting to adjust graduating Seniors’ attendance to the S code from their last official school day through the last day of the school year. I had emailed to verify that and I made the adjustment as directed for the applicable seniors. See below for that email (Exhibit 8). The senior student IDs are as follows:

[Unreadable text]

Please let me know if I can provide more information for you or if you have any other questions (Exhibit 9).” [sic]

Principal, Dr. Kevin Gatlin: Due to the pandemic crisis, the OIG was not able to make physical contact with Dr. Gatlin to obtain a recorded statement. On July 14, 2020, OIG received an email statement from Dr. Gatlin, which is transcribed in its entirety.

“Mr. Sheppard,

In response to the complaint noted below, I found no evidence as I met with and discussed at length with my assistant principal and data processor the details of the complaint. I directed my data processor to forward the memo and email received from her district level contact directing data processors to adjust the attendance of 12th grade attendance, which she responded to in her statement (Exhibit 10)." [sic]

Manager – Department of FTE & Student Reporting, Jason Smith: Due to the pandemic crisis, the OIG was not able to make physical contact with Mr. Smith to obtain a recorded statement. On July 21, 2020, OIG received an email statement from Mr. Smith, which is transcribed in its entirety.

"Good morning Robert,

Every year, seniors have a last day of school that is earlier than the rest of the students. Those days are counted as "School Related Absences" and seniors will typically have events on different days during that window between the two dates (Senior picnic, cap and gown pickup, senior checkout, etc.) instead of classes. Because seniors are not in class and are instead doing school related activities, schools are to mark senior absences from class those days as "S - School Related Absence".

Please let me know if you have any further questions (Exhibit 11)." [sic]

CONCLUSION

Data Processor Kathleen Spaight provided the OIG an email that showed five seniors whose attendance records were changed per the District’s FTE Office. Assistant Principal Terence Hart said he found no evidence of administrators changing student attendance records, and that an email was received by Ms. Spaight from the District’s FTE Office regarding senior attendance adjustments. Principal Dr. Kevin Gatlin confirmed that an email was received from the District FTE Office regarding attendance adjustment for graduating seniors. District Department Manager of FTE Student Reporting Jason Smith corroborated all statements provided by the Turning Points Academy Administrative staff members by stating that seniors attend graduating events throughout the day, and that teachers are to make attendance adjustments as applicable (Exhibit 11). The OIG did not identify any other students whose attendance records were inappropriately changed by the Turning Points Academy Administrators. Based on the documents reviewed and the testimony obtained, the OIG determined that the allegation that administrative staff members inappropriately changed student attendance records is unsubstantiated.

OIG File
The evidentiary standard used by the School District of Palm Beach County OIG in determining whether the facts and claims asserted in the complaint were proven or disproven is based upon the preponderance of the evidence. Preponderance of the evidence is contrasted with "beyond a reasonable doubt," which is the more severe test required to convict a criminal and "clear and convincing evidence," a standard describing proof of a matter established to be substantially more likely than not to be true. OIG investigative findings classified as "substantiated" means there was sufficient evidence to justify a reasonable conclusion that the actions occurred and there was a violation of law, policy, rule, or contract to support the allegation. Investigative findings classified as "unfounded" means sufficient evidence to justify a reasonable conclusion that the actions did not occur and there was no violation of law, policy, rule, or contract to substantiate the allegation. Investigative findings classified as "unsubstantiated" means there was insufficient evidence to justify a reasonable conclusion that the actions did or did not occur and a violation of law, policy, rule, or contract to support the allegation could not be proven or disproven.

Hi Kevin and Terence,

Thank you for sharing your concerns.

I went through records for each student. It looks like the bus for [insert name] is already set.

Those marked 8/18 are set to start Monday. I'll see if they can start Friday, and ask that the involved team leaders contact you if that is possible. Sometimes the schedules are pledged in unison with changes and cannot be started earlier.

I am emailing our routing team and SBE specialist to the students who are not assigned to routes yet. We do have them in our system as being assigned to [insert name]. I am making that everyone get back to you and Terence when those routes are established.

Please continue to share any issues with whom I can assist. This time of year, it is best to call my cell as you did, I am receiving an overabundance of emails.

Thank you both for all you do to support the drivers and most importantly, the TP students. Undoubtedly, your intense support will have a transformational impact on their lives.

I caught the error. I have two identical 5th Period sections, and took attendance in one, and not the other.

Seems the same thing occurred during 6th period. Apologies, problem fixed, thanks again for understanding -- I'll keep a close eye on that in the future (Thumbs up)

Good Afternoon Teachers,

Please make sure you review the following email sent on behalf of Ms. Spaight:

Doris

Hello

As FTE is upon us a few reminders are listed below:

- Please take a moment to make sure the 'inactive student' box in GRADEBOOK is UNCHECKED. This will ensure attendance records for FTE show only our active students.

- Per Dr Gatlin use the A or P letters for attendance. Please *do not use S *for testing students. Though it can be used and some schools do use it, Dr Gatlin prefers to have the testing coordinators keep attendance for those students. I can adjust the attendance on my end in SIS for those testing students. Therefore any student not in your period and you believe is testing please mark A.

- Per the SDPBC STUDENT PUPIL PROGRESSION PLAN (Page 35): When a secondary student misses 50 percent or more of the identified instructional class period due to late arrival, tardiness or early dismissal, the student shall be considered ABSENT. Therefore a student should be considered absent after 26 minutes to class. Remember as well Dr Gatlin directs that attendance is to be taken within the first 10 minutes of class.

Thank you for help

Hello Mr Sheppard
I will answer the questions you included first:
1. To my knowledge I have not contacted the District Office to request student attendance to be changed. The answer above has covered questions 2 and 3. I have checked my emails to look for any outgoing emails that would have indicated that request.

In regards to the complaint of the attendance being done by administration after a teacher has marked it I am unaware of anytime I would need to change any attendance after it was taken by attendance via emails and I would enter attendance that was taken by substitutes when the teacher of record was not available to take their own.

I have attached an email from myself to Amy Gurdak at the FTE office in reference to the graduating seniors and their attendance code for this last May. Jason Smith from the district office had to adjust graduating Seniors' attendance to the S code from their last official school day through the last day of the school year. I had emailed to verify that and I made the adjustment as direct. The senior student IDs are as follows:

Please let me know if I can provide more information for you or if you have any other questions.

Best Regards,

Kathleen Spaight

In response to the complaint noted below, I found no evidence as I met with and discussed at length with my assistant principal and data processor the details of the complaint. Good morning Robert,

Every year, seniors have a last day of school that is earlier than the rest of the students. Those days are counted as "School Related Absences" and seniors will typically have events on different days during that window between the two dates (Senior picnic, cap and gown pickup, senior checkout, etc) instead of classes. Because seniors are not in class and are instead doing school related activities, schools are to mark senior absences from class those days as "S - School Related Absence".

Please let me know if you have any further questions.

Jason
