

Kitchen Sink

Read Aloud Activity

It is 7:25 a.m., and Petra is getting ready for work. She goes into the kitchen to make breakfast. She steps in a big puddle. The puddle is in front of the kitchen sink. Oh, no! The kitchen sink is leaking. Water is on the floor.

Petra wakes up her husband. His name is Miguel. She tells Miguel about the leak. He looks at the pipes under the sink. He sees that one of the pipes has a small hole. Miguel turns off the water and tells Petra that he will go to the hardware store and buy a new pipe.

When Petra gets home after work, the sink is fixed. Miguel replaced the old pipe with a new one. Petra is happy Miguel fixed the leak.
